

Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA)

What is AODA?

AODA stands for Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (2005). The goal of this Act is to make Ontario accessible by 2025 through the development of accessibility standards. The first standard set out in the legislation was the Customer Service Standard which came into effect on January 1, 2008. All businesses and organizations had to comply with the standard by January 1, 2012.

In the coming years, businesses will see specific regulations covering:

- Accessible Information and Communication
 - Addresses access to information in person, through print, or website
- Employment
 - Addresses paid employment practices relating to employee-employer relationships e.g., Policies and practices surrounding recruitment and hiring
- Accessible Built Environment
 - Addresses access into and within buildings and outdoor spaces, doors, parking lots, etc.
- Transportation (not applicable to Islington)
